HIGHWAY SAFETY ISSUES

CHARLES MCMAHON/KARL DUBAY

The committee met with Karl Dubay who was representing Charles McMahon regarding the potential for future construction of an Elderly Affordable Housing Unit that would be situated just off of Indian Rock Road. Mr. Dubay came to the committee wanting to know whether or not from a Public Safety/E-9-1-1 perspective that if a future plan was to come before the town for such a development, would the committee support a proposed road name as “Hazel Road”. After some discussion, the committee so no issue and supported the proposed road name if plans came to fruition.

PLAN REVIEWS

DUNRAVEN ROAD

The committee reviewed the plans as presented. The committee so no issues with the plans, however it was suggested that the developer consider the possibility of a connection to Morrison Road and to further have the possibility reviewed by KNA

WEST SHORE ROAD –

Chief Lewis informed the committee that a memo was submitted to the Board of Selectmen to review issues along West Shore Road specifically in the area of the boat launch area. He will keep the committee apprised of the outcome.

Meeting was adjourned at 2:14 PM
